

SPECTACULAR CRIMES ENACTED MONDAY

BANDITS LOOT WHILE CHIEF FITZMORRIS IS ASKING FOR MORE MEN

One Woman Shot and Two Others Robbed of $10,000 Worth of Jewels—Bandits Take
$11,150 from Paymaster—Wealthy Families
Have Been Employing Private Guards

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, MAY 22.—A woman was shot, two others were imprisoned while their apartment was looted of $10,000 in diamonds and jewelry and a paymaster was robbed of $11,150 today while Chief of Police Fitzmorris was seeking the appointment of 1,000 more policemen.
The request was based on recent outbreaks of crime which revealed that some 200 wealthy families have been employing private guards to protect their homes. The request for additional policemen will be considered by the city council tomorrow.
"Altho Chicago and New York cover practically the same amount of territory," Chief Fitzmorris told councilmen, "this city has a smaller force than New York."
Among today's crimes, the most spectacular was the robbery of James Hanley, assistant cashier of the Sinclair Oil Refining company. Hanley with a companion was driving to the bank in an automobile to deposit $11,150.

ROSENFELD OF ROCK ISLAND IS NEW CHAIRMAN

Succeeds Frank L.
Smith of Dwight on State Committee

(By The Associated Press)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 22.—Without a hitch the new Republican state central committee organized here tonight, replacing Frank L. Smith of Dwight, as chairman, with Walter Rosenfield of Rock Island. The vote was 15 to 6. George E. Keys of Springfield, was named secretary, succeeding Justus Johnson of Aurora, who was elected treasurer.
S. S. Tanner of Minier nominated Mr. Rosenfield and immediately Francis P. Brady of Chicago nominated Mr. Smith for reelection, explaining that he bore a resolution signed by seven members pledging him their votes. Both Smith and Rosenfield refrained from voting. After the result was apparent, Mr. Smith moved it be made unanimous for Mr. Rosenfield.
Senator Barbour of Chicago made a brief speech seconding a motion also made by Mr. Brady, thanking Chairman Smith for his service as chairman. It was unanimously adopted.
The seven members who voted for Chairman Smith were Francis P. Brady, Edwin S. Davis, James B. Rhea, Soling G. Graham, George B. Arnold, John P. Garner and Bernard Brozowski, all of Chicago. George M. Milley of Harrisburg, who was also counted a supporter of the governor was not present.
Less than fifteen minutes was taken for the meeting. It ended the control of the Small-Thompson wing and put the Deneen-Brundage faction in the saddle. Chairman Rosenfield did not indicate when he would announce his committees. Their chief work will be the engineering of the Republican campaign this fall.

ONE HUNDRED ARE LOST WHEN SHIPS COLLIDE NEAR BREST

Heaviest Fog in Years
Was Cause of the Disaster

(By The Associated Press)
BREST, May 22.—The thickest fog in years around the Finisterre light alone was responsible for the catastrophe to the British Steamship Egypt according to Captain Le Barzic, commanding officer of the freight steamer Seine, in his report to the ministry of merchant marine.
The Seine rammed the Egypt Saturday night and nearly 100 persons lost their lives in the disaster. Among them were two Americans, Mrs. M. L. Shibley and Miss V. M. Boyer, missionaries, on their way to India.
"The fog was so thick," says the report, "that the captain on the bridge was unable to see the bow of his ship. On Saturday at 4:20 P. M., the fog became so thick I gave orders to slow down to about 500 revolutions a minute thus maintaining an average speed of six knots. When at 7 o'clock I heard a fog horn quite close and immediately a huge bulk appeared at right angles crossing our bow I gave orders to reverse the engines, but too late, a terrible crash occurred, my ship striking the other amidships.
"The fog whistle was sounded and I finally succeeded in catching sight of a great liner which was listing badly to starboard. At 7:40, the ship, which later was identified as the Egypt, went down by the stern. I ordered all the boats lowered and secured the sea for hours, picking up several dead and also many in whom life was not extinct. I gave up about 11:50 and returned to Brest."
The disaster occurred a few miles from Green Rocks, where the Drummond Castle, was wrecked in June, 1896, with a loss of 247 lives. A heavy fog still hangs over the shores of Finister, making the work of the searching parties difficult.
When the vessels came together those aboard the Egypt did not realize at first the extent of the damage caused by the little freighter Seine. It was some minutes before the liner began to heel over and then the passengers dashed in great alarm from the dining room to the deck.
Captain Collyer urged them to be calm and ordered out the boats, for which there was a rush. The Lascars, it is asserted, used clubs in an attempt to get possession of the boats but the officers drew their revolvers and drove them away.
Caused Women to Lose Lives
London, May 22.—"It had not been for the Lascars and natives rushing for the boats, all the women would have been saved." This declaration is made in a signed statement given to the correspondent of the Evening News at Brest by Joseph Duff, a Scotchman, a passenger on the Egypt.
The correspondent declares that there is ample confirmation of a panic, altho both passengers and officers of the ship are extremely reticent. He met Captain Collyer walking about today as if in a daze.
Robert F. Bevan, an American survivor, explained that the great list the Egypt took immediately after the collision, made it difficult for the passengers to approach the life boats. He admitted there was a certain amount of panic.
A. W. Harwick, a senior wireless operator, was not on duty when the collision occurred, but he rushed to the wireless cabin and took the place of the operator on duty, sticking to his post until the ship sank and dying with his hand on the key sending out the signal, "S. O. S."

ATTELL CLAIMS ENEMIES TRYING TO "FRAME HIM"

Oil Soaked Rags and Gasoline line Found in His Bootery

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, May 22.—The oil soaked rags and gasoline which fire inspectors found in Abe Attell's Little Bootery were "planted by the crowd that tried to involve me in the baseball scandal," the former champion featherweight pugilist declared today. Abe was considerably wrought up over the inspectors' discovery which resulted in a Sunday trip to headquarters for him.
He appeared before Fire Marshal Brophy today, escorted by his partners and their attorney and bearing an armful of insurance policies and books of the business. He carried $18,000 of fire insurance and $2,000 of burglary protection, his policies revealed. Abe stated he turned down an opportunity to sell out at a $13,000 profit only a month ago.
"The baseball crowd tried to put something over on me," Abe complained. "The plan was obvious. They left the oil cans and the leaking gasoline cans where they knew they'd be discovered before the fire started."
"They're bent on ruining me."

LABOR PARTY HAS MANY CANDIDATES FOR JUNE ELECTION

Election in Ireland Promises to Be an Exciting
One

(By The Associated Press)
DUBLIN, May 22.—The labor party has a list of 21 candidates for the June election, but no other candidates have been announced. Before Saturday's agreement was reached, the farmers' union was considering putting forward candidates. It is thought there will be many contested seats. The expectation that the whole election will, like that of 1920, consist of unopposed returns is not entertained at the publicity department of the Dail Eireann.

In any event the supporters of the treaty will see some increase in their majority in the new Dail for the election will include four members of Trinity College who favor the treaty and who are not members of the present Dail. Any independent candidates who may succeed, would it is generally thought also be for the treaty.

At both previous assemblies of the Dail the oath of alliance to the Irish republic was taken but it is not certain there will be any oath at all in the third Dail. The Dail will include members of the Ulster seats and under a provision of the agreement will be treated as uncontested returns and fall to their present holders. All these, with the exception of one, hold seats also in the southern parliament so that the point concerns only John O'Mahony, member from Fermanagh.

There are some who think that an undertaking might be given that no Sinn Feiners from Southern Ireland would in the future interfere in the six counties thus leaving the Northern Sinn Feiners to fight their own battle with the Northern Government within its jurisdiction.

He refused to discuss details of the escape.

AMERICA MUST NOT CHECK FOREIGN TRADE

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, May 22.—For America to check her foreign trade would mean an international disaster, Col. Myron W. Robinson, president of the American Manufacturers' association declared in an address tonight before the National Council of Importers and Traders.
"Foreign trade was never of more consequence," he said, "and import trade was never more necessary. The men of today with vision are devoting their efforts to broadening all business."

Francis H. Sisson, vice president of the Guaranty Trust company, declared that labor difficulties all over the country were holding back the return of real prosperity, but that banks were showing increased favorable positions and that the volume of production had been sustained for several months.

DAUGHERTY STILL UNDER ATTACK BY SENATOR CARAWAY

Declares He Was Directly
Interested in
Morse's Release

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, May 22.—Renewing his attack on Attorney General Daugherty in the senate today, Senator Caraway, Democrat, placed in the congressional record alleged copies of two more letters purporting to show that Mr. Daugherty was active and directly interested in obtaining the release from the Atlanta penitentiary of Charles W. Morse, the shipbuilder.

The letters published today in a local newspaper, Senator Caraway said, showed that Mr. Daugherty was engaged in the case because he had confidence of former President Taft, who commuted Mr. Morse's 15-year sentence and charged that Mr. Daugherty had "abused" Mr. Taft's confidence.

One of the letters purported to be from Thomas B. Felder, New York attorney alleged to have been written by Frank Seely, editor of the Atlanta Georgian to Mr. Felder, said that Mr. Morse owed his liberty and his life "to yours and Mr. Daugherty's efforts."

Mr. Seely said his interest was purely philanthropic. Both letters bore 1917 dates.
Commenting on statements in the letters that Mr. Felder and the present attorney general took steps to prevent revocation of Mr. Morse's release when it was charged that fraud had been practiced upon President Taft, Senator Caraway asserted that Mr. Felder and Mr. Daugherty, if not cognizant of the original fraud, prevented rectification.

Senator Morse, Republican, when Senator Caraway had finished asserted that "the whole performance, in connection with discussion of the Morse case was a smoke screen to hide Democratic cabinet officers who served under the last administration."
The Morse and Bosch Magneto cases, now before the department of Justice, the New Hampshire senator said, promised to "seriously embarrass a former attorney general and former secretary of the treasury."

Denies Allegations
Senator Caraway disclaimed any intent to embarrass the department or any interest in the pending prosecutions.
The evidence submitted in the Morse case, it placed before a jury, Senator Caraway declared, would convict both Mr. Daugherty and Mr. Felder of fraud.

The letter by Mr. Felder, purporting to have been written to Leon O. Bailey, Hanover National Bank building, N. Y., detailed connections with the Morse case at length explaining as a fee in the case of $25,000 in stock, on which dividends subsequently ceased. The letter said that Mr. Felder was engaged by Mr. Seely, the Atlanta editor and that Mr. Felder arranged to renew Mr. Morse's commutation plea just before expiration of Mr. Taft's term.

The letter said that Mr. Felder and Mr. Daugherty were informed by Dr. A. L. Fowler, prison physician that Mr. Morse appeared to have bright prospects.
"With this cue, Mr. Daugherty and myself took up the matter, de novo," the letter continued. "We returned to Washington, discussed this phase of the case with the attorney general and with the president.—The Application for pardon or clemency 'hung fire' for several weeks.... During all of those weeks, Mr. Daugherty and myself spent practically all of our time in New York, Cincinnati and Washington working upon the case."

The Seely letter was largely a summary of the events leading to the alleged retention of Felder as counsel for Morse.

NEW EFFORT MADE TO RELEASE MEN

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, May 22.—A new effort to release Fred Mader, president of the Building Trades Council, and seven other labor leaders indicted recently in connection with the murder of two policemen, on bail was made today.
This effort came in the shape of a writ of habeas corpus ad testificandum which may result in the prosecution having to disclose the nature of the evidence which it says it has against the labor leaders.
Meanwhile the grand jury continued its investigation of disorders in the building industry. Twelve witnesses were heard.

OBJECTIONS MADE TO WITNESSES SHAKING HANDS WITH SMALL

Prosecution Objects When W. W. Sherman of Swift & Co. Shakes Hands with Governor
Small on Leaving Witness Stand—Defense Makes Ojection to the "Key System"

(By The Associated Press)
WAUKEGAN, Ill., May 22.—Bank records which the prosecution will attempt to prove have a bearing on the alleged conspiracy in which Governor Len Small, Lieutenant Governor Fred E. Sterling, the late Senator Edward C. Curtis and his brother, Vernon S. Curtis, are charged with scheming to defraud the state, made their appearance in the trial of the governor today.

Late in the day devoted almost entirely to testimony in connection with loans made to Swift & Co. by the late Senator Curtis, the prosecution called Howard A. Rice, a clerk in the audit department in the Continental & Commercial Bank of Chicago. He followed W. W. Sherman, assistant treasurer of Swift & Co., who took the witness stand last Friday.
Complaints against the manner in which the trial is being conducted were lodged with Judge Edwards tonight by both defense and prosecution. The defense objected to the method by which exhibits in the case had been marked by the prosecution. The prosecution protested because a witness shook hands with Governor Small in court before the jury.

Gathering at the bench before Judge Edwards just before court adjourned Charles C. Leforgee and Werner W. Schroeder of the governor's counsel told the court the "key system" of lettering and numbering exhibits was unfair. They asserted that the system enabled the prosecution to connect exhibits in series which were prejudicial in tracing loan transactions before the jury. Judge Edwards sustained the objection and ruled that the "key system" shall be abolished.

Governor Small and his attorneys turned to leave the court room.
"Just a minute," said Ralph Dady of the prosecution. "We have another matter to bring before the court."
Mr. Dady then called attention to the fact that Mr. Sherman, upon leaving the witness stand, stopped as he passed the governor to shake hands with him.
Governor Small retorted, "What else do you expect me to do but shake hands with him?"

Mr. Dady declared that the incident had the effect of impressing the jury that the testimony of Mr. Sherman, a state's witness, should not be taken seriously. Such exhibitions, if repeated, Mr. Dady said, would prejudice the case against the prosecution.
Mr. Leforgee pointed out that Mr. Sherman had testified that he had never met Governor Small until they met in court.
"I guess your honor had better instruct witnesses not to offer their hands to the governor," declared Mr. Leforgee.
The testimony of Mr. Rice who took the stand less than half an hour before court today, dealt largely with a description of the banking system employed in his institution. Mr. Rice said he was an employee of the Fort Dearborn National Bank until the affairs of the bank were taken over last December by the Continental & Commercial National Bank. It was thru the Fort Dearborn National Bank that much of the paper in connection with the Curtis loans to Chicago packers passed.
Camera men for four different motion picture companies arrived in Waukegan today to take pictures of Governor Small, attorneys in the case and the jury. Judge Edwards granted a ten minute recess but obstinacy on the part of some of their number kept the jury out of the picture. They refused to pose on the court house lawn where the scene was laid.

Despite warnings sent broadcast by financiers and large banking institutions, small investors throughout the country have been victimized thru the purchase of four per cent gold certificate bonds of the old Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railroad company. That company which defaulted 8 years ago in the payment of interests, passed out.
The bonds of the old company which have become to be known the "joke of wall street" found their way into the hands of the schemers and bucketshop keepers. Thru the bucketshops they have been sold at $12 and $15 each—quite an inducement when it is taken into consideration that their original face value was $1,000—and the schemers have used them as "collateral" in booming unlawful corporations.
Officials of the present Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific declared today that they had been trying to run down the source of a boom in the worthless securities that started a month ago. Many small banks had at times paid "honest to goodness" money on the coupons, they said.
New Yorkers as well as persons in other parts of the country have been victimized.

Thus far the story presented about Attorney General Daugherty's connection with the pardon of Charles W. Morse ten or twelve years ago, shows nothing especially discreditable. At any rate, there will be time enough in which to condemn the attorney if incriminating facts are presented. Just now it looks like an effort to muddy the waters at a time when prosecutions are in prospect for alleged excessive profits on war time contracts.

President Harding and leaders of the senate and house have conferred upon means for speeding the ship subsidy bill so that it may become a law before the present session of congress adjourns. The hearings in the house are nearly concluded, and it will be reported to that body as soon as the committee has worked out a few remaining details. Its early passage thru the house seems assured, and it will probably go to the senate in ample time for its consideration by that body following the completion of the tariff bill.

The installation of equipment which will make possible the use of the stand pipe for the distribution of water in the Jacksonville mains marks another distinct step in the development of the water system. Every day people are coming into a greater appreciation of what it means to have an adequate supply of water that it fit for drinking purposes.

There have been many complaints because pressure was inadequate in the higher parts of the city, and now this trouble is to be remedied. It will mean better pressure in all mains. The water supply can be made the basis for Jacksonville's growth.

PASSPORT RECORDS BROKEN.

The month of May has broken all records for passport receipts in the United States. Close to 25,000 passports will have been issued by the state department this month, by far the largest number in any month in its history. The total passports issued up to May 31 of the current year will number 77,000. Since the passport fee is $10, that means $770,000 of revenue for Uncle Sam. But it also means a large invisible balance against the country. It has been said that the average amount spent by American tourists abroad is not less than $1,000. At this rate that would mean $77,000,000 of American money spent in foreign parts.

THE RUSSIAN SITUATION.

The summing up that Secretary Hoover gave recently of the Russian situation bears repetition. The introductory paragraphs are from the Bache Review:

"Whenever profit, or advantage which is equivalent to profit, disappears from human effort, business or trade will disappear. Business will die. Human effort will cease. That is what has happened in Russia.

"Russia wants to trade with the world, but the Soviet Government has strangled Russian production, broken down Russian transportation, made Russian currency worthless, and destroyed Russian credit. What has it to trade with? As to a loan to Russia, what civilized state, with constitution founded on respect for private property and individual rights, can come to any workable agreement with the Soviet Government, which believes in and practices confiscation of private property and justifies the breaking of all promises and contracts at will?

"Russia is bankrupt. She has no productivity. Her factories and mines, even when founded on Russian raw material, are producing but from 2 to 25 per cent; her railways are transporting less than 7 per cent of their pre-war capacity; her agricultural production is below her own needs instead of the great normal surplus; she has eaten up the entire fat and can for a long time have nothing to exchange for the services of our workmen or the savings of our investors."

WILL TRANSFER GREEKS TO QUINCY SOON

Sheriff Weatherford was in communication yesterday with State's Attorney Morning of Schuyler county and was advised that the Greek trackmen in custody here are to be transferred to Quincy some time this week. The Schuyler county official indicated that the change would probably be in the latter days of the week and that he would notify Sheriff Weatherford 24 hours in advance so that a special car can be ordered from the Wabash for transportation of the men.

W. W. Wight, chief counsel for the Greeks yesterday received a request from Mr. Morning to meet him in Quincy Thursday for argument on any preliminary motions.

R. F. PLACE TELLS ABOUT BETTER BUSINESS

R. F. Place, editor and manager of the Mid-Continent Banker of St. Louis, came to Jacksonville last night to be present at the meeting of group bankers today. Mr. Place will accompany the party of New York, Chicago and St. Louis bankers and bond men on their itinerary this week.

The St. Louis man has been busy for a number of weeks past attending similar conventions and said last night that it is a noteworthy fact that bankers in all sections are able to report improved business conditions. This is especially encouraging in the south, where conditions have been even more unsatisfactory than in other areas.

MULE STRUCK BY AUTO NEAR MURRAYVILLE

A mule belonging to Albert Hayes of Murrayville was struck by an automobile Monday about a mile north of Murrayville and so badly injured that it was necessary to kill it. George R. Jones and Charles Raliffe were driving two mules which had just been purchased to the Hayes farm near Manchester. At a point north of Murrayville one of the animals reared to one side directly in front of an approaching automobile. The animal's leg was broken by the collision and it was soon put out of its misery. Enthusiasm Shown In Our Saviours Hospital Campaign

A fine enthusiasm marked the meeting of leaders and workers in the campaign to raise funds for Our Saviour's hospital. This conference was held Monday morning at the chamber of commerce rooms, with Capt. W. T. Harmon, chairman of the committee, presiding.

An explanation was made of the purpose of the campaign and also of the system to be followed in solicitation. After the conference solicitation was commenced in both the business and residence districts. Before the day closed it was possible to announce that contributions of $6,914 had been received toward the $25,000 it is expected to raise thru this campaign.

The solicitation is expected to proceed much more actively today as there were of necessity many interruptions yesterday.

It was announced that pledges have been made to furnish 15 rooms in the new addition. Three of these are pledged by people living out side of Jacksonville. One is by a resident of Morgan county living outside of Jacksonville, one by a resident of White Hall.

One donation of $2,000 was announced and one for $1,000.

Due to the fact that the day was largely a day of getting the various teams assigned to their respective sections of the city not much progress was made in

HEAVY FIRE LOSS ON SCOTT COUNTY FARM

Barn on Farm of Mrs. Mary Whewell Destroyed By Fire Sunday—Other Wares From Winchester and Vicinity.

Winchester, May 22.—A large barn on the farm of Mrs. Mary Whewell eight miles east of Jacksonville was totally destroyed by flames Sunday. The fire occurred while all the members of the family were away from home and the origin is unknown. Otis Whewell lost all his harness, hay and grain, which were stored in the barn. The loss is only partially covered by insurance.

BOOZE DISPENSERS TAKEN BY POLICE

Frenchman and Wife Drove Here From Auburn With Ample Supply of Refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Emolt DeSire of Auburn are the reluctant guests of the city of Jacksonville. They were arrested last night by Capt. Elliott of the night force with a large quantity of white mule and gin in their Ford sedan.

Chief of Police Kiloran has been watching for the Frenchman, for such he claims to be, during several weeks past. The chief had a tip that the man would be here Monday and the residence of Rolley Daly on Washington street, where the arrest took place, was watched all day, but it was not until 8 o'clock last night that DeSire who was accompanied by his wife drove to the front of the Daly home.

The arrest followed and when the booze car reached the police station an invoice taken disclosed 3 1-2 gallons of white mule and 5 quarts of gin. There was also an empty 5 gallon container. The odor indicated that the contents had been white mule, and the DeSire entered vigorous denial. Chief Kiloran believes that he had disposed of 5 gallons before his arrest.

DeSire claims to be a miner and says he purchased the liquor in Saugamon county before bringing it here. The police incline to the theory that DeSire is the manufacturer as well as the distributor. At any rate, it is known that he has been making regular trips to Jacksonville for some time and at the prices charged has no doubt carried on a very lucrative business.

Information will be filed against DeSire and probably his wife, in the county court. Since the arrest was made with the liquor actually in possession of the man, there will be no trouble about the conviction in this case.

Mrs. DeSire, who can talk only broken English, insisted that she was not guilty and that she came with her husband because he made her do so.

HADN'T HEARD OF JACKSONVILLE

A gentleman of this city was at a winter resort and there met a man who had not heard of Jacksonville. He asked if the place had produced any men of note or had done anything worthy of mention. The Jacksonville man referred to Governor Yates senior and junior and the stranger admitted they were national characters. He referred to Rev. William Milburn, the blind man eloquent; to William J. Bryan, largely a product of Jacksonville; Gen. B. H. Grierson, the noted cavalry general, and other celebrities and finally the stranger to Jacksonville admitted it must be something of a city and but a very small part of the truth had been told.

"Midnight"

Edna Morris, daughter of the American Ambassador to a South American Republic, is inveigled into a hasty marriage with a worthless attaché of the embassy. The same day he is threatened with arrest for embezzlement, and to escape, leaps into the bay. He is believed drowned. The scandal is hushed up and Edna's father then resigns his post, travels around the world for a few years to help his daughter forget, then returns to his family estate in the United States. Edna soon falls in love with Jack Darter, a neighbor, and their engagement is announced. Soon Potter turns up, demanding money for silence. Morris is frantic and while Edna is still ignorant of Potter's return, she is mystified by her father's swift change of attitude for he now forbids her to marry Jack. Edna rebels and elopes with Jack. Upon her return from the midnight wedding she finds Potter's body in her father's library. Her horror at learning that he has not been dead all this time is succeeded by the fear that her marriage to Jack occurred before Potter died, thus making her a bigamist. An interesting denouement proves that Potter died ten minutes before Edna's midnight marriage.

DAILY VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL.

The Daily Vacation Bible school is the best method yet devised to meet the need of religious instruction of children in a serious and earnest manner. As a community enterprise, it emphasizes the unit of religious interest. There is no such thing as variation in religious aims and endeavor; there is but one aim, the building of character and but one interest, the realization of the divine ideal.

The vacation school inspires the child with a sense of the worth of religious interest. There is no such thing as variation in religious aims and endeavor; there is but one aim, the building of character and but one interest, the realization of the divine ideal.

The vacation school inspires the child with a sense of the worth of religion. When religion is seen to be something that is worth the serious service of trained teachers and the time of busy men and women, it can never again be regarded as something to be treated lightly.

It indicates the right kind of information, and that at the age when the child is most receptive and responsive. The teaching of sincere men and women in the things of the religious life, lodges in the child's heart like a seed lodges in the earth and grows into fruition as naturally and as inconspicuously as the seed grows in the soil.

It provides for serious instruction. The D. V. B. S. is not a day nursery where children may be sent to be taken care of. The curriculum and the methods are such as to require earnest work on the part of both teacher and student. It is a school in the strictest sense.

It recognizes the value of religion to the child. By giving attention to the need of the responsive child's heart, and to the need of the inquiring child mind, it fills in the empty space in the present scheme of provision for these matters.

The D. V. B. S. also recognizes the value of the educational method in religion. In fact, the educational method is about the only available method of religious development that proves effective with the larger number of young boys and girls.

OIL WELL IN GREENE COUNTY IS PROMISING

Great Crowd Attended Sale of Seth Griswold Effects—White Hall Chautauqua Dates Are August 13 to 20.

White Hall, May 22.—James Pegram visited the oil well in the Bishop Springs neighborhood, northwest of White Hall, Sunday, and thinks there is evidence of oil at the present distance of 500 feet, there being gas. Mr. Pegram's years of residence in Arkansas gave him a good knowledge of oil prospecting affairs and he finds much to interest him in the boring operations in the vicinity of White Hall.

The public sale of personal effects at the home of Seth N. Griswold Saturday afternoon drew an enormous crowd and articles went at quite handsome prices, some even exceeding present market prices. There was an eagerness to obtain something from this former home of the great philanthropist of White Hall and this influenced bidding to a high point. The sale was continued Monday and until the entire of the furnishings of this great household are disposed of. Col. L. L. Sely is the auctioneer.

Rev. George Stoddard of Arcola, was a visitor last week in the city and community, he being a native of this vicinity. He stands high as a Baptist minister.

The date of the annual White Hall chautauqua has been set for August 13-20 next. The program has been only partially made up, and it will be completed and ready for announcement next week, according to the president, J. H. Fox.

The board of education of the White Hall school district will open bids at 1 o'clock June 6th for the erection of a new high school according to plans and specifications on file in the office of the secretary, Henry W. Shirley. This will be about a $50,000 job.

Foot Troubles

Nine Out of Ten Wear Shoes They Should Not

This probably is not the fault of the wearers but of the men who sold the shoes. They did not understand your peculiar needs. A No. 7 shoe won't fit every person who happens to have a "No. 7 foot." There are many things that enter into the right fitting of feet—knowledge of the foot itself, the shape of the shoe needed to give comfort, and the leathers used.

For many years we were employed as foreman of a big shoe factory specializing in fitting the "Hard-to-Fit" and in supplying the proper shoe to correct and relieve existing foot troubles.

Dishwasher and Kitchen Table

Another Item of Household Drudgery Eliminated

We have the electric washer, the sweeper, the toaster, and a dozen other labor savers in the home, and now—the dishwasher.

Of all the household tasks a woman has to do, none does she dislike more than that of dishwashing—it's a mean, slavish, disagreeable work—three times a day, no matter the weather, no matter how she feels, dip, dip, dip, into hot, greasy dishwasher. But, now all this is eliminated in the home—ten to fifteen minutes does the trick, in a clean, pleasant manner.

Here's How it Operates

First, the lower rack in the dishwasher is filled with plates, saucers and platters. The silverware is also placed in the proper compartments.

The upper rack is then put into the dishwasher, and cups, pitchers and glasses are placed in it.

When all the dishes are in place a tea kettle or an eight-quart bucket full of hot water in which a tablespoonful of washing powder has been put, is poured into the dishwasher and the lid is closed.

The motor is then switched on. This turns the paddle wheel which throws the water at great speed over and around every article, thoroughly cleaning all sides of dishes and silverware.

In eight minutes the dishes have been washed and are ready for rinsing. The water in the dishwasher is then drawn off and another eight quarts of boiling water for rinsing is poured in.

In three minutes, the dishes are rinsed and the motor is turned off.

It is only necessary to dry the silverware, and glasses, which must be polished with a dry towel. By the time this is done, the china has dried of its own accord and is ready to be placed in the china closet.

The dishwasher cleanses itself, because the same water that rinses the dishes also rinses out the machine.

The dishwashing has taken only 12 to 15 minutes, with practically no work on the part of the housewife and with no dipping of hands into hot greasy dishwater.

ROMANCE OF THE COAST GUARD SERVICE

Liquor smuggling fleets work of guard service in early days of the republic.

Washington. — Romance of the coast guard service of the new American republic has been revived by the fleets of liquor smugglers hovering along the country's shores.

Prohibition officials discussing today the problem of run running which has become serious along both seaboard declared that the whiskey ships have brought back to the coast guard the duty for which it was originally established. Created in 1790 "to prevent depredations along the coast" the earliest duty of the coast guard was to war on the pirates who preyed on the merchant shipping in and out of the ports of the new nation and who had their strongholds on the islands adjacent to the southern shores.

Nowadays, officials remarked, the liquor ships following the wake of Captain Kidd and his swashbuckling crews are giving the men of the coast guard the stern chase and sometimes the jolly battles that was the daily portion of their predecessors in the stirring times of the bold black flag.

Es an instance of the history repeating itself, officials declared the islands of the Bahamas, where run smugglers now make their headquarters, were once the base for followers of "Jolly Roger" and it has been reported through official channels that one of the families of the island of Bimini, now a fountain head for illicit spirits, is directly descended from a famous freebooter who made the Florida waters a mariners graveyard two hundred years ago.

Coast Guard seamen of today officials maintained, search the waters of the South Atlantic for bootleg hulks where once their forerunners scanned the seas for a pirate sail or listen at the mouth of the Florida rivers for the put-out of the gasoline craft with its contraband cargo where the ears of a newly formed service were attuned to catch the creak of block and tackle or the scrape of oarlocks.

But besides the war on run runners in the South officials pointed out the coast guard is kept on the alert along the whole Atlantic coast, off New York and Boston, and on the Pacific, in the waters of Puget Sound, where the Canadian smugglers bring across the line imports forbidden by national prohibition.

One day last summer, a seaplane on its way from lower Michigan to Batchewana Bay, winged its way almost directly above her lodge.

Children playing outside, called her attention to it and with much exclamation of pleasure the aged Ojibway watched the craft until it had disappeared in the distance. This was her topic of conversation for days, although her auditors were for more interested when Mrs. Whalen would relate great tales of the early days in Michigan the bloody tribal conflicts; and all the century old folklore.

She spoke of the "Walk In Water" the first steamboat to appear on the great lakes in 1818 and would tell of the coming of the railroad, but all these things to her mind were trivial compared with the wonders of an airplane. Of her eleven children, only two and these beyond the allotted "three score and ten," are still alive.

Dr. J. R. Harker left Monday for Danville to be present at the funeral of Dr. W. H. Webster, at on time superintendent of Jacksonville district, and also a former pastor of Grace M. E. church in this city.

SURE WAY TO GET RID OF BLACKHEADS

There is one simple, safe and sure way that never fails to get rid of blackheads, that is to dissolve them. To do this get two ounces of calomel powder from any drug store—sprinkle a little on a hot, wet sponge—rub over the blackheads briskly—wash the face and you will be surprised how the blackheads have disappeared. Big blackheads, little blackheads, in matter where they are, simply dissolve and disappear. Rub the parts without any mark having. Blackheads are white, a mixture of dust and dirt and sebum from the body that form in the pores of the face. Dissolving and dissolving them, a few minutes a day and they become dead and then out they fall. The water only kills the blackheads, the calomel powder kills the sebum and dirt. It is a simple, safe and sure way that never fails to get rid of blackheads. It is a simple, safe and sure way that never fails to get rid of blackheads. It is a simple, safe and sure way that never fails to get rid of blackheads.

DECREE ISSUED BY SOVIET RUSSIA ON PROPERTY RIGHTS

Think It Will Meet Conditions Set Down by Hughes

(By The Associated Press)

MOSCOW, May 22.—A fundamental decree recognizing property rights within certain limits and upon which Russia' future dealings with American and foreign and local capital depend, unanimously passed the executive committee today. While wide latitude is given capitalistic and industrial effort the decree nevertheless provides that everything must be limited to the soviet laws and gives the soviet the right to void any agreement which obviously is directed to harm the state.

A special clause was added to the law on motion of the communist faction at the last moment which makes it non-retroactive. It specifically denies right under the law to previous owners whose property was expropriated on the grounds of revolutionary law up to the time of the issue of the decree and does not give them the right to demand return of the property.

Foreigners under the decree have the same rights as Russian citizens if they previously have secured permission from the proper authorities to operate in Russia. The right of protection of the Russian court is given to persons abroad suing on contracts and other matters in Russia only in the event that Russian citizens similarly have access to the courts of the National who sue in Russia.

Believe It Meets Conditions. Soviet officials today told The Associated Press they considered this decree largely meets the condition of Secretary of State Hughes for trade in Russia.

Regarding the ownership rights in buildings not nationalized up to date, M. Kursky, commissar of justice, told The Associated Press that virtually all large structure in Russia had been nationalized thus leaving few affected by the new law. The committee also unanimously passed the government's new land policy, reiterating the principle of state ownership of all lands but providing life tenure for peasants working it. The measure provides that none may buy or sell land or that it may remain indefinitely in possession of those cultivating it.

FARM WORK MOST BACKWARD IN YEARS

Report Shows Only 35 Per Cent of Plowing Completed May 1 —Condition of Crops.

Springfield, Ill.—(By Associated Press)—Spring plowing and planting in Illinois are the most backward in years, according to the monthly crop report issued here by A. J. Surratt, federal agricultural statistician for Illinois. Reports of correspondents, Mr. Surratt's statement says, "show only 35 per cent of plowing for spring planting completed on May 1, compared with 75 per cent last year and the ten year average of 60 per cent."

"Spring planting was only 31 per cent completed on May 1, compared with 55 per cent last year and the ten year average of 47 per cent. This has been one of the most backward planting seasons on record for Illinois and the plowing acreage is the smallest since 1912.

"Fields are heavy, due to the excessive and prolonged rains, making it very difficult to put the soil in good condition for planting."

Five per cent of the winter wheat acreage has been abandoned, Mr. Surratt's report says. Condition of winter wheat is well above average and the rye, hay, pasture, and fruit prospect is highly favorable; annual live stock losses are moderate with the exception of hogs, and the spring condition of live stock is about average. The report in detail is partly as follows:

"The acreage of winter wheat abandoned in Illinois is estimated to be 5 per cent of the fall sown acreage of 2,275,000 acres or a loss of 139,000 acres. This leaves 2,136,000 acres for harvest this season compared with 2,623,000 acres harvested last season and the ten year average of 2,335,000 acres. The returns from our correspondents show a decline of four points from the April 1st condition of winter wheat in this state. Growth shows reasonable progress but is somewhat rank and off color. This is particularly noticeable on low ground, due to excessive rainfall and cloudy weather. The month closed with weather favorable for crop development. A continuation of seasonable weather is needed to improve the color and strengthen plant vitality quite generally. The May 1st condition of winter wheat is estimated to be 89 per cent compared with 93 per cent last month, 94 per cent a year ago and the ten year average of 82 per cent. The May 1st condition indicates a crop outlook of 54,000,000 bushels as compared with 42,638,000 bushels last year and the ten year average of 39,850,000 bushels. For the United States the winter wheat acreage abandoned is estimated to be 14.5 per cent, leaving 31,131,000 acres for harvest. The condition on May 1st was 83.5 per cent of normal, indicating a production of 584,793,000 bushels compared with 587,032,000 bushels last year and the ten year average of 569,233,000 bushels.

Rye in Fine Condition. Rye came thru the winter in Illinois with very little acreage loss and continues to show a high average condition. The acreage remaining for harvest is estimated to be 209,000 acres compared with 197,000 acres harvested last year and the ten year average of 118,000 acres. The May 1st condition of rye is placed at 93 per cent of normal on April 1st, 95 per cent a year and the ten year average of 90 per cent. The indicated production is placed at 3,615,000 bushels, compared with 3,349,000 bushels last year and the ten year average of 1,999,000 bushels. For the United States the indicated production on May 1st is 1,152,000 bushels compared with 57,918,000 bushels last year and 57,050,000 bushels the ten year average.

Reports show a favorable hay crop in prospect quite generally in this State with a 3 per cent increase in acreage over that of last year. Tame hay acreage is estimated to be 3,200,000 acres compared with 3,172,000 acres last year and the ten year average of 2,857,000 acres. Wild hay acreage is placed at 62,000 acres of the same as last year. The May 1st condition for the state is estimated to be 93 per cent compared with 91 per cent last year and the ten year average. Pastures are reported in favorable condition generally.

Live stock losses have been moderate as a rule during the last year, being average or less with the exception of hogs. Owing to the unusual severe cholera outbreak last season, the loss of hogs has been the heaviest since 1916. The loss is estimated to be 7.3 per cent. This exceeds the five year average loss of 4.16 per cent, but is less than the ten year average (1912-1921) hog loss of 9.4 per cent. The condition of stock is most favorably or about averaged but spring pig losses have been unusually large, due chiefly to unfavorably wet spring weather at farrowing, and to some extent to overfed sows.

NEW TEACHERS ARE NAMED BY BOARD

Board of Education Held Special Meeting Monday Evening—Also Awarded Tract for Moving Open Air School.

The Board of Education convened last evening at the High school with the following members present: Roberts, Metcalf, Duncan, Rapp, Hooper, and Muehlhausen, member Metcalf presiding at the meeting.

Architect Buckingham was called in and submitted several bids on the work to be done on the open air school. The bids consisted of two parts: part (a) the moving of the school, and part (b) the excavating, setting and remodeling of same building at the new site. After some consideration L. B. Barnhart was awarded the contract on part (a) and C. E. McCarty the contract on part (b).

Thomas Hopper then gave a report of the committee which was to get suggestions for the remodeling of the Independence school. After some discussion the board voted that the matter be laid on the table until the next meeting, thereby giving time for consideration.

Next in line was the matter of securing additional instructors for the coming term, the following teachers being recommended and approved:

High School
Richard Hobson—Physics and General Science.

Louise Pietcher—Civics and History.

Vernon E. Barnes—Assistant in Manual Training.

Junior High School
Genevieve Bowen—Music and Art.

Marian C. Pruitt, Lillian Wrede, Mary Lemmer, Dorothy Robertson, Marian Blatter, Lucile Kirby, and Esther Davis, who had not signed for the coming term, but has reconsidered her action.

The question of securing a teacher for the open air school for the coming year was then brought up, and it was suggested that a close study be made of the roster of all the teachers names, and the one best qualified to take the work should be selected and sent to some appropriate school during the summer, where she might pursue such a course as would fit her for her new duties.

Contract for Printing Equipment
The matter of securing adequate equipment for the printing department, which is to be installed for the coming year, was then taken up. John R. Reton, representing the American Type Foundry Co., of St. Louis Mo., being heard from. It was then voted that his firm should be awarded the contract for furnishing the printing equipment.

It was also voted to have the building supply company purchase a horse drawn mower, for use on the lawns of the various schools. An order for oil to be used on the floors in the High school and David Prince buildings was also honored.

The question of instituting the "Thrifty Plan" to encourage the saving and thrift habit among the students of the various schools was brought up. A motion was then made and seconded that the finance committee should investigate the savings proposition for the pupils of the public schools, and after conferring with local bankers should report to the board at their next meeting.

There being no additional business to be acted upon, the meeting was then adjourned.

TRINITY CHURCH MAKES FINE RECORD

It is very gratifying to know that the affairs of the Episcopal church in general and of this diocese in particular are in such good condition as exists to date. In conversation yesterday with Rev. J. F. Langton, the worthy rector of Trinity church of this city it was learned that when Bishop G. H. Sherwood was appointed to this diocese they had been paying his predecessor $2000 a year and were in arrears $1700.

The incoming treasurer gave his note for that amount and paid the retiring prelate and then Bishop Sherwood went vigorously to work with his new charge. He was started at a salary of $2600 and is now receiving $3600. During the past year the largest amount, $3400 for missions was contributed in the diocese. There is a balance of $3400 in the general treasury. The salaries of missionaries have been largely increased. Three vacant fields have been put in action; one church has been restored; contracts have been let to build three manse or rector's residence; the number of confirmations has been the largest in the history of the diocese; the number of infant baptisms has been unusually large; four times as many candidates for the ministry have applied for preparation; and the work of the diocese is generally in a flourishing condition. Bishop Sherwood excels as an organizer, an administrator and a preacher, an unusual combination. He recently conducted a campaign for the endowment of the diocese and secured $100,000. He is now engaged in raising $15,000 toward a chapel at the state university at Urbana, for which $25,000 has already been raised. The bishop is a man generally much beloved and is good to his clergy.

It may be truthfully added that if every church in the diocese has such a rector as the one whose services Trinity church in this city enjoys, it is no wonder the work is prosperous.

REAL ESTATE MEN HELD MEETING

Yesterday at noon a good number of real estate agents met at Peacock Inn for a dinner in an effort to effect an organization of the agents in the city. O. F. Bufile and a Journal reporter were guests of the occasion. C. H. Story presided but the secretary appointed had to be away from the city on urgent business and was unable to attend.

A number of informal talks were made bearing on the subject and the majority of those present were in favor of an organization. Mr. Bufile said he was preparing an especially attractive addition to south Jacksonville and would be very glad to have the agents of the city help him sell the lots and it was suggested that it would be well for each agent to have a blueprint of the addition and have any prospective purchaser deal with his own broker.

A number of short speeches were made and the general feeling was that an organization would increase business and be a help to the city. Nearly every one had something to say but Mr. Story spoke longest. He especially emphasized the way they do things at Palm Beach, Florida.

There they have a healthy men's organization and strangers are warned against dealing with any not supplied with cards. The organization is very beneficial to Palm Beach and its citizens.

Mr. Story laid stress on the fact that such a body would bring business to a higher plane, would educate the public to the workings of the members; would stimulate business by publicity; would engender more cordial relation between the public and the members; would be mutually profitable and would eliminate injurious outside influences and would tend to weed out unscrupulous men in business.

As the secretary was absent no definite action was taken but there is to be another meeting soon.

TWO FIRE ALARMS

Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock the fire department was called to the intersection of East Superior avenue and Park Place where an electric car had caught fire presumably from a short circuit.

William Haneline who resides nearby gave assistance and kept the blaze under control by using dust until the arrival of the department. Had it not been for his efforts Chief Hunt said the car would have been badly damaged or perhaps destroyed. The car is owned by Mrs. Anna Noll and the loss is fully covered by insurance, which Chief Hunt estimated at about $150.

Monday evening at 7 o'clock the department responded to an alarm from 455 South Sandy street. A small house owned by the Railway and Light company located just north of the ice plant had caught fire in some unknown manner. The blaze was extinguished without much damage.

M. L. PONTIUS MADE ADDRESS TO GRADUATES

Baccalaureate Service for High School at Central Christian Church Drew Large Audience Sunday Night—The Divine Challenge Ministers Theme.

The audience which assembled for the baccalaureate services of the Jacksonville high school held at Central Christian church Sunday night heard an inspiring program. Rev. M. L. Pontius had for his theme, "The Divine Challenge," and the minister sought to impress his auditors with true faith and devotion that they might realize the message which Christ gave to His disciples after they had marveled His wonder working, for He said to them: "Greater works than these shall ye do."

The members of the graduating class, more than eighty in number, together with their friends made up an inspiring audience. Rev. G. W. Bandle and Rev. George E. Stikney had part in the services and there was special music by a quartet including Mrs. Carl E. Robinson, Mrs. Abraham Wehl, Leonard T. Fraser and Criel Gouvel.

Address to Graduates.
In the special address to the class Mr. Pontius said:

When the disciples of Jesus beheld His wonder working they marveled. Jesus then gave them His message, "Greater works than these shall ye do."

Members of the class of 1922. Look out upon the world of achievement and progress. See men and women successful in their professional and business activities. Note the splendid work of inventor, philosopher, scientist, etc. Study the program and achievements of the world's greatest benefactors, and then hear these words: "Greater works than these shall ye do."

You will do these greater works because your experience will be more varied and your opportunities will be more extended.

To do these greater works you must have a vision. The dreamer has a vision and the world's dreamers are the world's benefactors. Character and success are the outward and visible manifestations of the unseen realities which the soul has grasped and actualized.

You must have a vision. Your vision will produce an ideal. No one ever had a worthy ideal that was not preceded by a vision. The creative ideal is the one you should pursue. The creative ideal will ultimately bring to you the satisfaction that you are one of the constructive forces of the community.

Your vision and your ideal will bring you the spirit of service. The purpose of an education is to assist you in doing these "greater works" which will enable you to receive the honor of being the servant of the race. The Christian said, "I came not to be ministered unto but to minister." In 1900 years no man has risen to a greater height.

The Divine challenge is "Greater works than these shall ye do." But you cannot do the "greater works" unless you have a genuine vision, a worthy ideal and the spirit of service. You will then be a medium for the transmission of the things which you have learned, and experienced into the lives and experiences of others.

Yesterday afternoon as Louis N. Wilson was going east from the square into East State street, William Morrow of Alexander was going north on the east side of the square and the bricks being somewhat slippery Morrow's car crashed into Wilson's rear fender damaging it somewhat. PROTECT YOUR CLOTHES AND FURS FROM MOTHS—Do it the sure, convenient, inexpensive way

Keep your garments, wraps and bedding stored in a well-made, moth-killing

Genuine Red Cedar Chest

Millions of dollars worth of clothing, furs, blankets and textile goods are destroyed every year by the ravages of moth-worms.

The United States Department of Agriculture recently had a series of tests conducted to determine the value of Red Cedar Chests as protection against damage by moths. The Department's Report shows how these chests "are effective in protecting fabrics from clothes-moth attacks"—because "cedar chests do kill young larvae" (moth-worms.)

This is Cedar Chest Week—May 15th to 20th

We have a complete stock of these Chests ready for your inspection in a variety of styles, designs and prices, and in finishes which will match period furniture.

Now, when you are getting ready to lay away your Winter things, is the time to get one of these Chests and make sure of safe storage for your clothing and furs.

Come in and ask us for a copy of this valuable booklet. It tells what the Department of Agriculture tests proved about the value of Cedar Chests and how to care for your garments to insure their safety.

Your copy is here, ready for you, with our compliments—no charge.

MORE PRESSURE IN WATER MAINS SOON

Council Authorizes Purchase of Recording Device for Use With Stand Pipe—Sidewalk Ordinances Passed.

A device is to be installed at the stand pipe near the west side reservoir which will insure satisfactory water pressure all over Jacksonville, including the homes in the highest elevation of the west part. This was the important announcement made at the city council Monday night, when Alderman Chapin was authorized to make the expenditure for the recording device which will be used in this connection.

The regular meeting of the city council found Mayor Crabtree, City Clerk Scott and Aldermen Sorrells, Harmon, Chapin, Ehnie, Loneragan, Flynn and McGinnis present. By the passage of ordinances concrete sidewalks were ordered laid as follows:

East side Hardin avenue from Morton to Superior avenue.

South Mauvasterre street from College avenue to the brook.

North side East Chambers street from Clay avenue to Hardin avenue.

North side East Court street from Yates street to Brown street.

South side West Railroad street from Diamond to Bedwell street.

Cox street west from Independence avenue to Hooker street.

West side Myrtle street from Lafayette avenue north to Sheridan street.

Alderman Loneragan asked if other ordinances would soon be ready and Alderman Sorrells said the idea was to get the ordinances passed and some of the walks actually laid before filling too many other ordinances.

Alderman Ehnie reported requests for lights at certain points on Prospect and Walnut streets. The question of damage to sidewalks near the corner of Lafayette avenue and Allen avenue was referred to the highway committee, of which Alderman Ehnie is chairman.

On motion of Alderman Flynn, with a second by Alderman Loneragan, Harold Reynolds was appointed motorcycle policeman in accordance with an agreement made with him by the police committee.

Alderman Chapin explained a plan for providing water pressure thruout the city by the use of the standpipe. An electric gauge or indicator will be installed and the engineer at the municipal plant can by consulting this gauge keep advised as to the height of the water in the stand pipe. It is the expectation that the plan adopted will do away with the various complaints about lack of satisfactory water pressure.

George Brown, Philip Braner and C. Schulz, residents of East College avenue, were present and explained that they had practically all the money raised for the residents' half of the oiling cost on East College avenue. Mr. Schulz and Mr. Brown later agreed to be personally responsible for the balance due and W. H. Cocking, the oil contractor, indicated that the work can be speedily done.

Street Commissioner P. J. White said that it would be certain to cause trouble if the council varied its rule that property owners must actually collect and deposit their half of the cost before the work begins.

John Burkery of North East street said that the money was practically collected on that street and that the property holders hoped that the oiling work can be done soon. Mr. Cocking said that the residents of Morton avenue and Richard street are the first ones to actually make complete collections.

THREE MONROE CARS IN INDIANAPOLIS RACE

Will be Driven by D'Alene, Alley and Crum — Every American Car Winning Race Has Been Built in Indianapolis.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind.,—Three Monroes, including the 1920 International Sweepstakes winner which have been entered by the Monroe Automobile Company in the 500 mile race to be held at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway, Tuesday, May 30, will be driven by Wilbur D'Alene, Tom Alley and Lora Crum.

All three of the cars was entered in the 1920 drive but were not seen in action last year. They are now being prepared for the long grind and one of the mounts will be equipped with a wireless outfit to phone messages from the pits to the fleeing car.

D'Alene is now in the city working on No. 4, the 1920 winner in the hands of the late Gaston Chevrolet. It is the car he will drive. D'Alene has driven at Indianapolis before. In 1916 in a Duesenberg he was second to Dario Resta, the winner in a Peugeot.

Soldier Tom Alley and Crum, one of Louis Chevrolet's proteges are also working on their cars.

It was the Monroe that broke the long string of foreign victories started by Goux in a Peugeot in 1913 after two Indianapolis cars had won the first and second 500-mile classics. This was in 1920. Then last year Louis Chevrolet's Frontenac was victorious. This year three Indianapolis cars, the Duesenberg, Monroe and Frontenac will attempt to keep the speed title of the world here in the Hoosier state.

Every Yankee car that has ever won a 500-mile race has been designed and built here in Indianapolis. The Marmon in the hands of Ray Harroun in the first race of 1912. National with Joe Dawson at the wheel the following year. Then the local victories of the past two years.

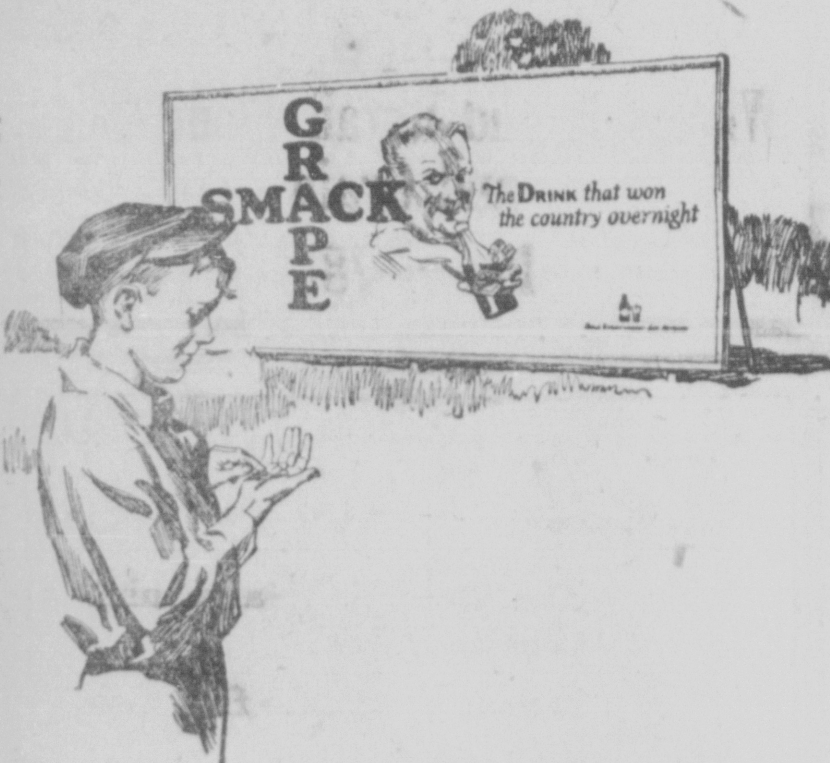

Interest in the big May 30th event is gaining momentum with the big drive only two weeks away. More seats have been sold for the race in advance, this year, than for any other event in the history of the Indianapolis course.

It is estimated that 150,000 people will see the race and 10,000 automobiles will be parked on the infield. Every state in the Union will be represented.

VANCE BESTS CHEEVES IN PITCHERS' BATTLE

Held Cubs to Four Scattered Hits — Wheat's Homer Nets Two Runs

CHICAGO, May 22.—Vance held the better of a pitching duel with Cheeves today, holding Chicago to four scattered hits, while Brooklyn hit timely and shutout the Cubs, 3 to 0. A walk, a force out, a single and a sacrifice gave the Dodgers the first run and they clinched the game in the ninth, when Wheat's home run drive accounted for two more runs.

CHICAGO, May 22.—The University of Illinois baseball team's fate in the Big Ten championship race will be determined this week when the club meets Purdue and Ohio State in the closing game of the season.

Illinois is now in a position where the championship is in sight again this year. The boiler-makers are now leading in the percentage column, but a defeat at the hands of Illinois, followed by a victory over Ohio State practically would mean the championship.

WEAVER'S RADIO BALL IS LEGAL

President Hickey So Rules After Consulting With His Umpires.

CHICAGO.—President Thomas J. Hickey of the American Association today announced the complete vindication of the "radio fadaway" ball perfected by Harry Weaver, pitcher with the Indianapolis club, which has proved so effective against association sluggers.

Although Weaver had endeavored to conceal the discovery and perfection of this pitch, which is the nearest approach to a double-jointed curve yet developed in baseball, the managers and veteran players of the big A circuit had felt that Weaver had uncovered a new pitch and numerous efforts have been made to show that the radio fadaway was illegal. Frequent opportunities to get hold of balls were taken advantage of, and occasional protests floated in to the office of President Hickey. As a result of this, President Hickey instructed every umpire to watch Weaver closely. Later a meeting of umpires was called here and the radio fadaway discussed from every angle. The umpires agreed that Weaver simply had discovered a new method of propelling the ball so as to give it a chance of pace and a drop at the same time. Consequently, the radio fadaway is just as legal as a fast one, a curve or any other pitch that is within the law.

Another interesting sidelight in connection with Weaver's new discovery is that at least two major league scouts have been trailing him this year. The Indianapolis club, however, is closely allied with the New York Giants, so that McGraw undoubtedly will have a radio fadaway among his slap repertoire before the end of the season, if he so desires.

ship. The Purdue game will be played tomorrow and the Buckeyes will meet Illinois on Friday. Illinois has lost only one game this season. Clifford Jackson, or "Lefty" Barnes, star hurlers for the Illinois clubs will pitch for the rest of the campaign.

Purdue has a busy week ahead, meeting Illinois on Tuesday, then going to Iowa City for a game with the Hawkeyes and on June 10 playing the University of Chicago on Stag field.

Michigan, which stands sixth in the percentage column, has six more games to play, while Wisconsin has three games left.

If Illinois wins this week's games the percentage will be .818 while if Michigan wins its six games its standing will be .833 while the best Wisconsin can do by making a clean sweep of the remainder of the games is .786. Should Purdue win the rest of its games the percentage will be .875 or the championship.

OVERTIME GAME WON BY INDEES

Take Fast Game From Roberts Brothers by Score of 1 to 0—Game Was Pitcher's Battle.

Showing mid season form the Indies took Roberts' Brothers team of Springfield to a cleaning yesterday in an overtime game, the final score being 1 to 0 at the end of the thirteenth frame.

Both teams fielded in sensational style behind superb pitching by Seymour and Chestnut. Several times phenomenal stops or catches saved the game for both teams. Both fought hard to break thru the others defense but it was not until the thirteenth that Chestnut's support cracked.

Prior to that time both teams had opportunities to put a run across, but the needed hit was not forthcoming. Roberts had their first chance in the second when Maurer hit for two bases but was doubled when Rush made a fine running catch for Farrell's short fly back of short.

Again in the sixth Segin singled with two down and took second on an infield out. However, Erickson was out when Burkery made a fine stop at his sizzling grounder and got him at first. In the ninth a fast double play stopped the visitors when DeFrates kicked Erickson's roller to Burkery who grabbed it touched second and got the batter at first.

All of these opportunities of the visitors were in the regulation nine frames. In the twelfth Roberts Brothers looked like they would put over a run and win the game. Segin was again first man up and singled to left. He took second on Greer's long fly to Points after Erickson had struck out. A passed ball put him on third. Maurer was next up and it looked bad for the Indies. He met one of Seymour's fast ones and drove a terrific liner to left.

Rush threw himself full length and picked the ball right off the grass for the third out. James got a double in the thirteenth but was thrown out trying to take third on a short passed ball. Christopher to Devlin.

The Indies were unable to solve Chestnut for the first four innings. Rush was the only man to reach first which was thru an error by Farrell. DeFrates singled in the fifth with one out and stole second. Christopher singled in the eighth and stole second while DeFrates got his second safety in the tenth and stole out the proceedings batsmen were unable to advance them.

In the eleventh Seymour tripled with one down but died on third. Chestnut appeared to be going stronger than ever and struck out two men in the twelfth. In the thirteenth the break came.

Hamm was out Segin to Farrell. Christopher made his second safety. Devlin had not been hitting during the afternoon and was instructed to lay the ball down. He made a perfect bunt down the third base line. Erickson came in for the ball leaving the sack uncovered. Greer who had been playing brilliant ball during the afternoon went to sleep at the switch and Christopher continued to third. Farrell overthrew the sack trying to catch him and he came on home with the winning tally.

The work of Rush, Burkery, Points and Wheeler was especially brilliant. In fact every man on the team was there when the opportunity offered. For the visitors Greer, Segin and Erickson did some beautiful work and several times their fielding beat Indee batsmen out of hits.

It looked for a while as tho the game would have to be called before a decision was reached. Manager Smith has a neighbor adjacent to the ball park who keeps every ball that is knocked on to her property. Sunday five or six went over the fence but Smith had prepared for the occasion and had enough extra ones to finish the game. The score:

WHEAT MARKET

CHICAGO, May 22.—Altho wheat prices took an upturn at the start today, the market averaged lower. Heavy arrivals here and at other leading centers indicated that the amount of wheat still available was large. The close was unsettled 2½¢ net decline to 1¢ advance, with May $1.33½ and July $1.23½ to $1.23½. Corn finished 1¢ to 1¢ down and oats off 1¢ to 1¢. In provisions the outcome varied from 7¢ decline to a rise of 20¢. Most of the traders in the wheat pit gradually reacted to the bearish side as the fact became apparent that for at least the time being any gains in price would be hard to maintain. Lack of any big shipping demand here together with the unusual large receipts and the continued good sized movement from the interior all tended to stimulate selling which included considerable liquidation on the part of holders. Besides crop reports were generally favorable and it was predicted that harvesting in the southwest would begin about the middle of June.

UNKNOWN SOLDIER STORIES TO BE USED

Associated press stories of burial of Unknown soldier recommended for public schools by F. G. Blair Publishers forward on articles.

SPRINGFIELD, ILL.—Stories of the burial of the "unknown soldier" in Arlington National Cemetery, written by Kirke L. Simpson of the Washington, D. C. staff of the Associated Press and carried on Associated Press wires have been re-printed in full in the Memorial and Peace Day book, just published here by Francis G. Blair, state superintendent of public instruction.

Prefacing the annual publication with a foreword of his own Mr. Blair says of The Associated Press stories: "The teachers and children of Illinois will get a new devotion to the living soldiers by reading the story of the burial of the unknown dead. Mr. Blair's tribute to 'The Unknown Soldier' which precedes the stories as written by Mr. Simpson, follows:

He heard not the shouts of victory. Upon his ears no words of praise and commendation fell. His deserving breast felt not the joy of bandages and medals of honor. To all the glories and honors of the war was unknown. His only reward was death and a nameless grave. How high were his hopes and how noble his resolves, we know not. Bravely, unheeded of self and selfish ambitions, he rushed into the crash and confusion of battle to lose his name, his life, his all in a great cause. And now a grateful nation heaps upon its unknown dead honors outranking any conferred upon its living soldiers great and solemn honors commanding and holding the respectful attention of the world.

What matters it that the eyes of the dead saw not and his ears heard not the demonstration, The great eye and ear of the world saw and heard it. His living comrades on land and sea saw and heard and rejoiced in the glorious tribute. Thus has the nation honored its living soldiers by a tribute to its unknown dead. May it never be truthfully said that a nation which thus pours forth its praise and wealth in ostentatious glorification of an unknown dead soldier is forgetful and neglectful of its living soldiers. The truest and best honor a country can show to its dead heroes is a constant expression of its sincere and loving regard and care for its living veterans.

In a note at the head of "The Unknown Soldier" stories, Mr. Blair gives the following word to the teachers: "Having read the articles written by Kirke L. Simpson, as correspondent of The Associated Press, on the ceremonies in connection with the transportation and burial of the 'Unknown Soldier,' I was struck by their clearness, strength and impressiveness.

My first thought was to make a Memorial Day Circular. The attempt to make extracts proved impossible because of the uniform merit of the articles. Therefore with the permission of The Associated Press we are printing them in full. The teachers may make such selections to read to their pupils as they see fit.

NEW RECORDS ON MOUND BUILDERS

University of Illinois receives art objects from recent investigations.

URBANA, ILL.—Discoveries of the last few weeks in the Cahokia Mounds of southern Illinois, revealing it was stated the culture and records of a people that lived there centuries before Marquette explored the Mississippi region, have been received at the University of Illinois, it was announced today.

Art objects showing skill of scroll work, and of perfect contour and uniform thickness; a carved effigy of the head of an animal with even the teeth outlined, although the object measure only one inch; awls and scrapers made of the bone of deer; food vessels and pots, spades and arrow heads showing fine workmanship, besides 52 skeletons from three cemeteries; are some of the unearthings of Warren King Moorehead archaeologist who is conducting the investigations for the University of Illinois.

A small crucible that came to light, and with it some lead showing the action of fire, has led to the supposition that the mound dwellers attempted the melting of lead, the announcement said. Large quantities of bones of deer show the abundant use of that animal for food, and it is further evidenced that the bones were broken in order to obtain the marrow.

That the people who built the mounds had trade relations with other tribes is believed by the finding of pieces of marine shell which it is supposed to have come from Florida or the Gulf. Evidences of red clay and flint indicate trade with men of the northern country perhaps Minnesota.

All these mounds, numbering 60 and within the region of 1,000 acres, are now believed to have been artificially built because of the formation of the earth in them, through which pieces of broken pottery are scattered. One is the third largest mound in the world, the largest being among the similar pyramids of Egypt and the other similar type of formation in Mexico.

The objects found by Dr. Moorehead are on display in the Museum of Natural History at the University of Illinois.

SCANLON PUTS ON 15 POUNDS AND FEELS FINE

War Veteran Now in College Declares That Tanlac Relieved Him Entirely of Serious Stomach Trouble.

"I have gained fifteen pounds and feel just like a man made over," said Neil Scanlon, 839 Wilson Ave., Chicago, Ill., veteran of the late war, now in DePaul University.

"After getting back from France I seemed to be fagged out all the time. I had a very weak appetite and was bothered with sour stomach, gas and heartburn. I got so run down I didn't care whether school kept or not, and couldn't hardly hold my own in college activities.

"Just at the 'zero hour,' one might say, I got Tanlac, and it fixed me up in tip-top shape again. I have plenty of strength and energy now, for study or athletics. I tell my friends Tanlac is a world beater."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.—Adv.
